

MUSICIANS NEEDED

Serve your nation, pay for college, make music

Currently holding auditions for all band instruments, including:

- Clarinet
- Tuba
- Percussion
- Guitar

Members of the 122nd Army Band meet one weekend each month to rehearsal and perform, plus an additional 15 days through the year to perform in public shows, parades, and ceremonies.

The Army Music Program is open to all talented musicians qualified to enlist in the Army National Guard. Members of the 122nd Army Band are Citizen-Soldiers from all across Ohio and beyond; many are music students, professional musicians, or instructors.

Education Benefits for Musicians

Your Tuition, Covered

The Ohio Army National Guard Scholarship Program covers up to 100% tuition to any state-supported school in Ohio, or the average of state tuition for a private university education.

Pay Off Student Loans

With the Student Loan Repayment Program you can receive up to $50,000 to take care of any student loans held at enlistment.

Cash for Books, Housing, Food, and More

The Montgomery G.I. Bill provides up to $13,200 cash to help with education expenses while attending college full- or part-time in monthly payments of up to $367 for 36 months.

Army National Guard programs and benefits are subject to change; contact your local recruiter for the latest information and additional details.

National Guard Benefits for Musicians

A Monthly Paycheck

Earn a good paycheck serving in the Guard, equal to 4 days full-time pay each drill weekend.

Earn More From Day One

As a qualified musician, receive an automatic advance in pay and rank to Specialist E-4 upon enlistment, with pay starting at $285/weekend. Serve longer and earn even more.

Take the first step: Audition

The first step to joining the 122nd Army Band is to audition. To schedule an audition, contact your local recruiter at 1-800-GO-GUARD or NationalGuard.com or get in touch with the 122nd Army Band at 614-336-6552 or 122ndArmyBand.com/join

NationalGuard.com

122ndArmyBand.com/join

